

PRECISION AG EXPO 2006

Morning Presentations

- Guidance Systems- Industry experts and local farmer
- Utilizing Yield Mapping Data - Dr. David Waits, President & CEO of SST Development Group, Inc.
- Maximizing Soil Variables- Dr. Subbarao Yarlagadda, National Agronomist with Helena Chemical Co.
- Variable Rate Technology- Kenneth Hood, Farmer and owner of InTime, Inc.
- Role of Crop Consultants in Precision Ag - Roger Carter, CEO, Agricultural Management Services, Inc.
- "Putting All the Information Together to Increase Profits" - Jerry Brightbill, Farmer from Plainview, Texas

Lunch: Included in the registration fee

Afternoon Field Demonstrations

- Guidance Systems Demos
- Soil Electrical Conductivity Systems
- Variable Rate Technology
- Working with Aerial Photography
- WeedSeeker Demo
- Drip Irrigation Demo

Displays:

Many agribusinesses including the leading Precision Ag firms will have displays including outdoors equipment displays, table-top exhibits and a technology center for software demos.

Continuing Education Credits (CEU's)

Texas Department of Agriculture Commercial Pesticide Applicator License: 2.5 ceu's

Certified Crop Advisers: 6.0 ceu's